STRATEGIC PLANNING CONSULTANT

* (Project Period: June 2014 to December 2015)

The key roles include to:

- Guide, facilitate and coordinate the strategic planning process framework and develop a 5 year strategic plan document
- Ensure adequate time is given to all stages of the planning and preparation activities
- Facilitate relevant conversations with stakeholders at various stages of the planning process
- Be able to effectively synthesise information gained from multiple sources and interactions during the process
- Provide thoughtful leadership on future global trends, best practice insights, relevant examples from other industries, and ideas for improvement.
- Facilitate and support the strategic planning committees and subcommittees in gathering and organising internal and external environmental assessments
- Help keep the process on track, on time and on budget and ensure there is a sense of ownership of the plan.

Applicants must be able to demonstrate:

- Knowledge and understanding of Benedictine/Good Samaritan values and ethos
- Previous experience in facilitating, guiding and developing strategic planning processes in other organisations and environments
- Ability to build trust, communicate successfully, challenge and work effectively with a diverse group of stakeholders and the wider Rosebank community
- Expert facilitation skills and ability to build consensus among a diverse group of stakeholders
- Interpret and synthesise a wide range of existing information as well as data from any additional surveys and processes
- Knowledge of the education sector
- Ability to provide external viewpoints, best practice insights and methods and "value-added" thinking to the development of the strategic plan and hence contribute to a learning organisation
- Flexibility and ability to respond effectively to changing circumstances and events.

Applications must include:
